

“Historical figures”

Do you agree or disagree?

- 1) People become great because they are lucky.
 - 2) All famous people are beautiful;
 - 3) You must do a lot of good things to become a historical figure.
-

The aims of our lesson:

- 1) I'd like to learn more about different great people.
- 2) I'd like to learn why and how people become famous.
- 3) I'd like to learn if appearance is important to become famous.
- 4) I'd like to learn what a person must do to become famous.

Cleopatra

Julius Caesar

Alexander the Great

Genghis Khan

Tutankhamun

Marco Polo

Manco Capac

Egypt – Egyptian

Asia – Asian

Italia – Italian

South America – South American

Rome – Roman

Macedonia – Macedonian

Match people with their characteristics.

1) Cleopatra	a) a South American leader.
2) Genghis Khan	b) a Roman ruler.
3) Marco Polo	c) an Egyptian king.
4) Manco Capac	d) an Italian explorer.
5) Julius Caesar	e) a Macedonian king
6) Tutankhamun	f) an Egyptian queen.
7) Alexander the Great	g) an Asian warrior.

Cleopatra - Queen of the Nile

Manco Capac

Manco Capac was the first Inca king. He lived in the 12th century. A legend says the sun god sent him and his sister to Earth. They made a new nation. Manco showed men how to grow food. His sister taught women how to make clothes. They made the city of Cuzco. People remembered him as a good king.

WHO WAS?

Mark the countries and cities he conquered according to the video.

Answers

Which of these historical figures impresses you the most?

... impresses me the most because...

Your homework is:

- 1) to write a quiz about a historical figure
- 2) WB 3b
- 3) to read all the names correctly

